

Ralph P. Glover

Ralph P. Glover of Charleston – Glover, a native of Terra Alta, graduated from West Virginia University in 1962 with a degree in Forestry. He has spent the bulk of his professional career with the West Virginia Division of Forestry. In 1971, as an assistant district forester in southern West Virginia, he initiated the Forest Products Utilization Program and an annual Lumber Grading Short Course, helping state companies to maximize their efficiency. In 1979, he was named assistant state forester for forest fire control, then deputy state forester in 1985. He is a past president of the West Virginia Society of American Foresters and of the Northeastern Area Association of State Foresters. He is past president and current treasurer of the WVU Division of Forestry Alumni Association and secretary/treasurer of the WVU Forestry Endowment Fund. He was chosen outstanding alumnus for the WVU Division of Forestry in 1994, and was “Lion of the Year” for the South Charleston Lions Club in 1991 and 1995.