

GROVER M. SEE

Born in Shook Run near Bass, West Virginia and graduated from Moorefield High School.

He started with Rockingham Poultry in 1945 as a Truck Driver and later served as Live Buyer, Processing Plant Superintendent, Assistant Plant Manager and Plant Manger for 18 years. Procurement and Planning to his retirement in 1986, vice.

He served as President, Program Chairman, Fund executive Secretary of the socation. He has been a organization his entire ca-

He is a member and West Virginia Agricul-Fame Foundation.

He was a promoter of the "Chicken of Tomorrow" contest, Poultry Improvement Program, and poultry research at all levels.

He was Director of Live for nearly two years prior with over 40 years of ser-Vice-president, Treasurer, Raiser and currently Ex-West Virginia Poultry As-guiding influence in this recr.

served on the Board of the tural and Forestry Hall of the "Chicken of Tomor-