Former Queens and Officers Invited to 75th Fairs and Festivals Convention

Mineral Wells, WV – The West Virginia Association of Fairs and Festivals (WVAFF) will celebrate its 75th anniversary in 2007, and to mark this occasion, the WVAFF is inviting all former WVAFF queens and officers to attend the association's convention January 12-13, 2007 at the Charleston Civic Center.

The convention will have a special reception to commemorate the 75th anniversary on the evening of Friday, January 12th. Other convention highlights include: a mini fair/festival, entertainment, live and silent auction, trade show, workshops, and the crowning of the 2007 West Virginia Association of Fairs and Festivals Queen.

If you are a former WVAFF queen or officer and would like to attend the 2007 convention, please contact Debra Gard at 1-888-982-3247 or email dgard@citynet.net.
